

Editorial and African Literatures Internship

About Africa Center Hong Kong:

Africa Center Hong Kong is a platform and creative hub that fosters value-creating interactions between African and non-African communities in Asia. Our products and services focus on bridging cultural differences and therefore fostering relations and cultural understandings between communities. We are a social enterprise that understands the need for community representations and diverse experiences thus trying to fulfil those needs through great products and services for our clients with a broader long term view and a firm emphasis on client satisfaction. We are driven by our social impact and influential practices of fostering conversations through innovation and entrepreneurship.

About you:

We are looking for talented and enthusiastic interns. This is a unique opportunity to contribute and gain insight into team growth-based activities across all areas of our strategic planning. You will be actively participating in our literature and editorial programs, as well as proactively supporting other colleagues within our organisation. In this internship you will have the chance to explore a broad range of African literatures and your capacities as a writer.

- Keen interest in African literatures
- Ability to write comprehensible articles in English
- Motivated to learn, self-driven and open-minded
- Skills in Canva, Photoshop and InDesign are advantageous

Tasks:

- Be involved in a coordination and administration capacity in the African Literature Book Club
- Writing articles for the African Spear Magazine
- Planning and executing events that promote African Literature in the city
- Assisting in African Literature programmes carried out at schools
- Assisting in reading group for African kids
- Reading African Literature books and creating discussion questions
- Managing the library

Benefits:

- In addition to being part of a great community and the learning experience, the Africa Center Hong Kong covers meals and provides transportation subsidies to all our interns
- We believe that our intern-graduates gain great skills that will be useful in their search for full time employment after their studies
- Recommendation Letter at the end of the internship
